What can the River Valley Education Foundation help you do for your students?

You'll never know until you ask.

The River Valley Education Foundation is now accepting applications for teacher grants for the 2021-2022 school year. A total of $1,500 in grant money will be available for each quarter, with excess funds rolling over to the next quarter.

Applications will be accepting on a rolling basis and considered quarterly on:

October 1st, 2021

January 1st, 2022

March 1st, 2022

River Valley Education Foundation Teacher Grants are funded by the various fundraising efforts of the River Valley Education Foundation. This includes the RVEF monthly jeans day, which are available to faculty and staff of the River Valley School District in the 2021-2022 school year.

River Valley Education Foundation Monthly Jeans Day

For a one-time payment of $25.00, teachers will be permitted to wear jeans once a month, throughout the school year. This will occur on the second Friday of each month (dates listed below).

- Checks can be written to "River Valley Education Foundation"
- Checks and questions can be presented to your building foundation member:
 - High School: Geoff Dixon or Joe Sembrat
 - Middle School: Geoff Dixon or Justin Kulik
 - Blairsville Elementary: Steve Shannon
 - Saltsburg Elementary: Tim Frassenei or Jen Surratt
